

TOOK THE STATE UNDER HIS WING

Hagan's Presumption Produces Deep Feelings of Disgust.

FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT

Gore Volunteers Will Not Soon Forget Insults Heaped on Them by Upstart.

Editor Tribune:—Noting your article in which the letter of the "Gore volunteers" is denounced and the general tone of the same, I feel that it may be of interest to state that I had a copy of the letter and that it represents my sentiments correctly, as well as the sentiment of several other supporters of Senator Gore in the primary election. It is strange that the question of the authenticity of the letter should be questioned. While Senator Gore himself confined his comment on the election to the brief statement in which he said he "had run a handicap race," those of us who had the honor of fighting with him and losing have none the less a right to resent the aspersions cast upon him and us, before and after the primary election.

As Senator Owen was quoted in your paper of August 10: "Party leaders cannot easily change their policies, but citizens are at full liberty and ought not to be bound by mere partisan feeling. The only way in which parties can be compelled to carry out the public will is by the citizen changing his vote whenever the party fails to nominate acceptable men." Now I claim that a good democratic doctrine from a good democratic source, and applicable to the case in point. Not satisfied with libeling and traducing Senator Gore and his supporters as un-American, pro-German, unpatriotic and so forth before the election, the Ferris rubber-stamp simon-pure patriots keep it up even unto this hour. Can it be expected that honest, God-fearing, constitutional Americans of the type of the Gore volunteers—who prove by their membership in such a body that they wear neither the collar of any man or any party—will not have the manhood to resent such insults?

Enclosed with the statement published came a copy of Senator Gore's short interview, and also a copy of a telegram sent by Horace Hagan to Mr. Ferris as follows:

Hon. Scott Ferris:
Congratulations. Accept my thanks for having saved the state from disgrace.

HORACE H. HAGAN.

Passing by the kindly way in which Mr. Hagan takes the state under his ample wing, is not this kind of stuff disgusting, not only to those who supported the senator, but to all Oklahomans? And Mr. Ferris published Mr. Hagan's telegram with great éclat, and nobody in the Ferris camp has given any indication of not being in entire accord with the sentiment therein expressed. But yet it is stated that the Gore men are "100 per cent for Scott Ferris."

No sir, the Gore men are not such political petroons. They fought the good fight on principle. Party regularity, so called, cannot change what's in the record. Furthermore, they have still their manhood and their Americanism, and they are going to exercise their right of franchise on election day just as it pleases them so to do. As for this writer, you may tell the world he is going to vote for J. W. Harrell for United States senator, and against the league of nations.

Yours truly,
A. F. SWEENEY.

Girls' College In Ozarks Attracts Attention

Beautiful Eureka Springs College Increases Enrollment.

Crescent College, a standardized Junior College for Girls at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, in the heart of the Ozark playground region, is fast becoming the widest known girls school in the United States, although enrollment is persistently limited to 50 girls. These 50 girls come from at least 20 different states each year.

Various reasons are being assigned for this, among them being the following:

It is accredited among the universities and colleges. Maintains real conservatory advantages. Does not attempt to retain cheap instructors. Insists that girls should have individual attention, unobtainable in large schools. Is democratic or otherwise two-fifths of the enrollment would not come from Texas. It long ago abolished silly boarding school rules and adopted student government. It emphasizes recreation as an essential part of a girl's education. Owns a beautiful lake and club house for exclusive use of students and teachers. Selects carefully its students from applicants only upon investigation among satisfactory references.

Crescent girls like it. So do their parents. These and numerous other reasons will make any school popular. A few spaces still unpromised. Write or wire for catalogue, view book and other particulars. Address Crescent College, Box W., Eureka Springs, Ark.—Adv.

Autumn Dresses

The beauty, variety, originality and character of the dresses for Fall is further emphasis of the tendency towards the attainment of that personal freedom of selection of line noted above.

Perhaps the most conspicuous silhouettes are the slender straight lines on one hand, and the Turkish and 1880 modes on the other.

The Balkan blouse effect and the untrimmed bodice that moulds the figure have infinite style manifestations in the autumn dresses, and the skirts have never received more style attention than this season.

The showing of dress styles will be of absorbing interest.

Prices from $35.00 to $250.00.

Dress Section, Third Floor.

The Fall Suits

The lines of the suits are very interesting, and it is as true as ever that the suits will occupy an important place in every woman's wardrobe.

The salient style features of the suits are the short coats, except for the longer than finger-tip length coats of the tailored models.

Fine furs are generously used, especially on the short coat models, producing a flare effect to the coat skirt that is especially smart.

High collars of fur give promise of being extremely popular.

Taken as a whole, the styles, both for variety and smartness, offer a choice that will appeal to every style-informed woman of Tulsa.

You are invited to inspect the showing.

Priced from $45.00 to $500.00.

Blouses for Autumn

—The silk overblouse is in vogue.
—Many smart styles are here—styles to be worn with the fall tailleur.
—The silks are in themselves very attractive and because of the trimness of finish over the skirt the overblouse will be much worn.
—Especially as the colors are very practical and then, too, the overblouse is always "just so," whether you have the suit coat on or off.
—Some of the materials are taffeta, pongee and many models in georgette.
—Popular colors in combination and plain—include orange, Chinese blue, navy blue, brown, tan.
—Prices from $15.00 to $25.00.

Blouse Section, Third Floor.

Paris Copied Millinery

—As in recent seasons—one is not confined to a restricted few types of millinery.
—The large hat, low and broad of brim, is freely worn by smart people, but so are the Egyptian turbans—and there are all degrees of sizes in between.
—The curtain hat in a smart and new style—the tiny curtain of maline or lace dropping over the edge of the brim.
—Under the brim trimmed is to be observed on many models.
—Hats of Hatters Plush are here in extensive range and some lovely styles are obtained with bright colored trimmings of black and velvet.
—Ribbon streamers are not uncommon, and an infinite variety of other smart and distinctly original ideas are here for your selection.
—Prices from $10.00 to $47.50.
